

MAJESTIC

I, Mother Nature, am with you at this timing, to enlighten you about yourself. To encourage you to know and understand more about yourself and for you to embrace 'you' in every fashion possible at this timing. Thank you indeed.

I, Mother Nature, am with you on this day and in this way to pat you on the back, to fluff up your pretend feathers and encourage you to fly in some fashions, as you guide yourself through your energy feelings and learn to be with the person you are in totality. Now, that seems a little bit much, you are going to say, but do you really think you are complete the way you are right now? The answer is no, you are not your very majestic self as of this moment, or at least most of you are not. But the possibilities are such that you are able to be majestic in your thoughts, as of this day, so it would not take much more to realize how much you are able to alter in your thoughts once majesty is placed into your very earthly body itself.

What does it mean to be a majestic person? Well, the true meaning of that word, means that you are willing to be completely exonerated from the past negatives being held in your body, to encourage you to stand tall and be able to look upon yourself with confidence and strength from your shoulders and spine and then of course, to know that you are able to smile within yourself, no matter what you are experiencing. It means that you choose your food and beverage with care, you gain your evidence of what abilities you have and know about, but you are willing to learn more about yourself, you are willing to make certain the physical body is flexible in all aspects and of course, you are willing to be outside with nature in almost every form of weather possible and enjoy the connection you have with nature as you experience it. In other words, you are the best of the best. I know, you do not believe that, but it is possible.

Majesty has nothing to do with the monetary world at all, because your thoughts are the best for you and that is what you are living with and by at this timing. You do not buy or sell your thoughts because they are personal for you each and every time. They are also very positive in nature for you to enjoy and they allow you to alter yourself one thought at a timing, and be happy and rather joyous with the outcomes. Only your thoughts are what I am speaking of at this timing. Thank you indeed.

Now, a majestic thought is positive, it is personal and it is for your betterment – at first that betterment might mean you need to rid of some of your old thought/word/action moments and allow the new to be noted. Majesty means you are willing to learn and accept the new rather than the old familiar. Your majesty will encourage you to reach out for something that is an upgrade from what you were doing, which means saving your time and/or money. Interesting? Yes, it is.

Majestic viewpoints in nature have a way of inspiring awe. When you look at a landscape — its shapes, its colours, its highs and lows, even the water that flows through it — you may feel a warm sense of wonder. Nature’s beauty is everywhere in the world, and when you notice how its elements work together, you can begin to see how your own strengths and qualities can nourish your spirit in the same way.

So, what I am stating is that you are the one that is able to alter your thoughts, encourage your changes to take place and you will reap the reward of a majestic feeling within you. You are the ruler of your world and that is a fact. You personally have thoughts and those thoughts being recognized will propel you through your life with a smile and a wonderful feeling of joy. You are energy and your energy is growing. You are physical and your challenges are being removed as the energy increases. Each day opportunities are provided for you to be better and better in all of your bodies, whether they are physically noted or mentally thought about or emotionally charged. Your connections with the energy world are increasing and that is your spiritual body that is connecting to you more securely now. A gift. A majestic gift and feeling.

Thank you indeed and good day.
