MAJESTIC

I, Thor, the Ultra Energy of the Universal All That Is, am with you on this day and in this way, to introduce you to the magic of yourself, the increased beauty of your light and the best of the best of incentives to learn more about yourself and the respect you have of all that is. Thank you indeed.

I, Thor, am with you today to introduce you to the one in your life that means the most to you on earth, to you in your physical being and to you in your energy being. Now, what does that mean? Well, it means you have chosen to be on earth at this big timing of change, and you decided to do that when you were purer energy and therefore more 'light' was within you. As you make your journey to earth as a conceived human being and get to know the woman who provides you with that opportunity, you are light. You have purer thoughts about what you are going to achieve and you have no emotional components or feelings of anything except the wonderful acceptance of you on your journey.

We have written about the babies being born at this timing and they are full of the ability to see and feel all the energies of people they come into contact with, all the creatures they might meet and all of nature that they are exposed to. Nature, such as the sun and moon, the wind and the clouds, the water that is in everything which assists them to see the energy in every tree and its foliage and every plant and its purpose. They are able to decide themselves, without any guidance from anywhere, what they are noticing and how it affects them personally. Babies are able to recognize what they are connected to energy wise if and when they meet and greet them physically. Smiles will happen automatically and you will be able to tell what they like and what they don't. If they are the ones that you are listening to, and wondering why the personalities are being exposed to some and not others, you are now aware that the baby, whomever it is, is letting you know who to trust and be positive for them and who they are avoiding in some fashions.

There will be no babies born now that are complacent to be with every person they come in contact with, but they will be very attuned to all forms of nature. Nature includes anything that is not built or constructed by humans by the way. Human beings are part of nature as are creatures, trees and plants and the water, earth and air. They include the sun and moon and stars and clouds and weather as you understand it at this timing. BUT and that is a big but, you need to remember at this timing, that your emotional components will not be influencing those babies, as they will be influencing yours. That is a fact.

So, babies born in 2026 are the ones that will honour you and respect themselves, and will respect themselves and honour you. Respect means acceptance of all that is happening within themselves and others and not being concerned on the changing of them at a whim. Honour means that you are worthy of seeing the light within yourself. That is also a fact.

Now, with that in mind, consider yourself and any babies that you might meet, with a majestic point of view. Honour them and respect them and consider them to be the best in your world. They are in your life to make certain that you learn more about yourself. Smiles they will have as they look upon everyone and everything with a respect and an honour in the world at this timing. If they are not smiling at anyone in particular and you notice the variance, it would be wise to consider that an indication to look at your own relationship with that person. Your babies are the leaders of the world now and you are able to learn from them at this timing, about yourself and all in your world. Open your eyes, your ears, your sense of smell and taste and feeling. Recognize that you are learning from the young. Thank you indeed.

It is the timing of change and that is excellent for everyone in this world. No longer look upon those in charge of countries, corporations and financial institutions as being the leaders. Look upon the babies now being born who will let you know whether someone or something is good for you or not.

Thank you indeed and good day.
