

MIGHTY

I, Quaw, the Ultra Energy of the Universal All That Is, am with you at this moment in your life, to share how well you are looking these days, how well you are functioning at upgrading the praise of yourself, and to ingratiate myself to you as an energy being of value to those on earth. Thank you indeed.

What does that paragraph mean to you, right now? Well, it means that sometimes when you are changing before your very eyes and your very thoughts about yourself, you are feeling mighty tired, or mighty frightened, or maybe mighty good about it all. Thank you indeed. Well, mighty is a mighty word, is it not? What do I mean by that word? Well, it is this way. When I see you as energy and only energy, I am mighty proud of who you are. When you look at yourself in the realm of your physical body, you are thinking you are a mighty small form on earth that likely isn't worth very much in any form of calculation. So, there are variances between what we see of the same energy form of you. That is a fact. So, today I am here to let you know of your value. Your value to the overall energy flow, your value as a human being on earth and its functions and of course, your value to yourself.

So, let us start at the beginning. I am in the universe and you have chosen to go from the universe to the earth in order to learn more about yourself as a human being, to learn more about how all of the earth works with you at any given moment and how you are willing to contribute to its functioning itself. Then it is the timing to recognize that because you are from the universe and are simply learning about yourself on earth for a given time period, it is wise to recognize your value both in the physical sense and the energy sense. That is not a big job really, but it is hard for you to handle that you are both. A mighty big job I am finding out. You have a mighty brain that is able to work consistently while on earth and you have the wherewithal to recognize that you are only able to learn so much about yourself, the way society has arranged how inner growth is allowed to be noted. Society is a mighty big challenge for the earth at this timing. Mighty big is not an exaggeration at all. That is because some of society wants to arrange for what food you have available, what water source you are going to claim, what taxes and other payments you are required to contribute along the way and of course, what to wear, what hours to sleep, what food is available to you at a cost of course, and what your opinions need to be, to accomplish in the world of economics, and politics of course in the world of the basics of living the mighty good life itself. Thank you indeed.

So, on this day and in your own mode of learning, you have the opportunity of being more you and less of society and of course to recognize that when your energy body increases its potential, your physical body becomes healthier. That is of course, if you are willing to say goodbye to some forces within you that are causing you a challenge. What is your challenge these days? Is it in the concepts of what is being taught? Is it the conscience of some people that you are adhering to at this timing? Is it in the righteous that want your attention, or the money mongrels? Or the parts of you that respect and honour the earth are desiring your attention to the realization and recognition that all is energy and when you know you are as well, you connect. What connects? The energy flow that is mighty powerful within you and surrounding you. Your thoughts just need to be open and available to changes and then we are all okay. You are okay because you honour yourself – physically, energetically. Then you reach out and offer respect to all others.

Mighty fine idea I would say. I, Quaw, being from the universal aspects of energy, am on earth in your energy space at times in order to assist you to understand more of who you are. That is a mighty fine idea. You just need to want to learn more about yourself and you will find that you will be able to do so very easily now. Your desires are heard and that is a fact. The desires of people on earth are connected to the energy aspects of the universe and together they create a fine, mighty fine, and mighty, mighty fine day, happening with you as a witness. Thank you indeed.

One last aspect of this word mighty – if you have a huge sandwich and it is bigger than your mouth can handle, you call it mighty big. If words come out of your mouth about your life at this moment, would it be a mighty life? No? Well, it could be, if you are able to think of yourself as a mighty fine person on earth at this timing, learning to be on your own in your thoughts and implementing them. It would create a mighty good world to live in.

Thank you indeed and good day.
