PARCHMENT

I, Thor, the Ultra Energy of the Universal All That is, am with you on this day and in this mode of communication in order to honour you as a person in the physical stance, we will entitle it, and you as a person on earth and learning more of who you are. Thank you indeed.

Now, that is an interesting statement. You believe you understand who you are and you are generally pleased with the life you are leading and recognize yourself in the mirror. In addition, however, it is the timing to really understand who you are with the concepts of your abilities' usage, and the knowledge of why you are on earth at this timing, what you are doing with your life so far, and what you plan on doing in your life from this moment onward.

You are a person that is physical, but the most important aspect is that you also have an energy body that allows you and encourages you to live your life to the fullest potential and what you know of yourself. Potential is an interesting word. Potential means that you have within you an ability to do something that might not yet be discovered. Potential means that you are able to be more than you are noted for in many aspects of life on earth at this timing. Anything is possible for you, which indicates that you are able to change daily into a person you might not have recognized a few years ago. Thank you indeed.

It is recommended that you ask yourself what potential you might have. I am talking about a potential of being simply more of who you seem to be at this moment in timing. You understand what you need to know to do your job or how you are acting in life with others. Acting being the operative word. You know what you like and don't like and sometimes you do both just to make it interesting. Your world is able to expand. Why? Because there is a timing for you to expand and your 'parchment of life' is now being noted by you. Did you realize you wrote your story for this lifetime prior to being born? Did you recognize that your energy body is able to understand all that you wrote and wanted to explore, but your physical body is quite capable of thinking it controls your words, and your actions? Your energy body is now ready to expand, and your physical dislocations are ready to leave. You are ready to see, hear, smell, taste and touch yourself in a broader fashion now. That is a fact. Thank you indeed.

Honour the 'parchment of life' and look at yourself to see what it is you have achieved so far in the knowledge of yourself and what is possible to still discover. Recognize that now is the timing to become more of who you are, what you are, and why you are ready to change. Your parchment is perched really in your thoughts. Listen to the thoughts and allow the explosion into the ethers to be noted. Energy could be described as the ethers. That means that you are ready to physically accept the energy as part of you and all that you are.

Thank you indeed and good day.
