

MOON

I, Thor, the Ultra Energy of the Universal All That Is, am with you at this timing and in this mode of communication to share information with you that is relevant to each person on earth at this timing. Thank you indeed.

Why is it relevant for all human beings on earth at this timing? Well, it is simple really. All human beings in their very physical bodies are energy, created into matter, in order to house the soul, which requires learning in variant ways on earth, that is not available when in purer energy spaces. It is a body that is created to be physical in stature, but also embodies a mental body, an emotional body, a spiritual body, a sexual body, a financial body and a universal body. You recognize that you have seven bodies altogether and they work with one another but also on their own -- they are connected but separate. And on this learning facility entitled earth, you are discovering an energy level that will assist you to be more of you on a daily basis.

There are but a few people on earth who understand the power of their energy body, and that is in addition to all of the other bodies that are connected with each other. The energy body is your universal body and although it connects with the others, it is significantly settled within you that it is not noticed on a regular basis. It is in use every time you are sleeping and every time you awaken, you are in a different state than when you went to sleep. Interesting thought.

Simply put – your physical body will fall asleep – whether it is standing up, sitting down or laying down and whether the other bodies are ready to do the same or not. In other words, the universal body ignites the physical into the distinct feeling of being tired and/or actually falling asleep in a position of discomfort. Thank you indeed.

The universal body provides you with your breath, your timing of events in your life and of course with the compass of which direction to take and when to take it. The universal body is your story and it holds onto that story and guides you in many forms. It is connected with your personal star and together they confirm the steps you wrote in your story of energy learning about yourself.

The timing of change is now. The increased vibrational rate of the earth has taken place for three-years now and all have noticed the changes on earth, in the world itself, and in the outskirts of the earth which you think of as the universe. Thank you indeed. After three years, all who are willing to change their thoughts, the words and actions and have them in a positive framework, rather than negative, are now benefiting by feeling less challenged in the world as it is and honour themselves in many, many methods. Thank you indeed.

If you have not consciously created the choice of change, but are changing anyway via a sub conscious mode, thank you indeed for doing so.

If you do not want to change any of your lifestyle, which includes your thoughts, words and actions towards food consumption, utilizing or at least finding your ability to be part of your life and of course in the mode of your lifestyle of positive thoughts and words and actions towards all in your life, then you are requiring a change at this timing, in order to maintain your physical, mental and emotional health. Thank you indeed.

Reach out to your spiritual body for your energy connection at this timing, It will honour the changes that are required so you are less challenged daily.

The energy body within you is gaining in strength and the physical is allowing the emotions to be removed and the combination will allow you to be a “NEW” you.

Mention money and more challenges will appear for you. Mobilize yourself to recognize the magic of energy flow and you combined. Memorize your thoughts and desires and make certain they are viable. Mobilize yourself to recognize your moments in life that mean you are precious to yourself. Mean what you say, before you say it.

That is all for today. The time for change, after three years of possible results, is now only a few weeks for you to manage your timing to advantage. Move toward the concept of you being on earth in peace and with the feeling of belonging to magic in the air and your every moment in life.

Thank you indeed and good day.
