

MONARCHY

I, Mother Nature, am with you on this day and in this mode of communication, to share some valid and valued information with you about what is happening in the world at this timing. What does that sentence mean to you? Each has their own perspective of course and everyone will gaze at the statement and respond in different modes. Some will think of the physical tones, some the mental stimulation and some with the emotional outburst of either yah or nay. Thank you indeed.

So, in your life at this moment in timing, where are you? Where in your thoughts, where in your actual body and where are you in your emotional removal? Three separate questions really — you can separate those thoughts. That is because you are advanced sufficiently in your energy body now that you are recognizing life in just a tad different perspective. What was, was and now what is, is. I like that sentence. It is short and meaningful. So, when you diagnose yourself and your thoughts about life in general, what is your concept of good and bad, reasonable and unreasonable, proud and dismissive. Or are you just happy that you have a perspective, and it doesn't require a particular word to describe it? All valid questions at this timing. Just remember, these are the type of questions you have at this moment and into your future because that is the energy of these days. Change. No one is staying the same, although some I would imagine are trying to do so.

Change – an interesting word of course. Change your physical appearance, change your daily eating habits, change your sleeping habits, change your attitude, change your clothes, change your thoughts and therefore perspectives. Change is the word and it is up to you as to how you would like to change. Thank you indeed.

So, it is time to alter what you think of yourself. You are a monarch. What does that mean to you? Well, it means you are recognizing that you are a valid individual on earth at this timing. You are looked upon and heard by many others, so your appearance and your voice with words of honesty are being noted. You are treated as an equal with all others, but you are a guiding light for yourself and many others. You honour life, the forms of nature that are close at hand, and the overall earth and its facility. You are a person who is, was and will be the best you are able to be each minute of each day. You are human of course, because you are living on earth, but you are a pure energy form as well that just happens to be on earth at this timing, to learn about the energy flow that the earth provides. An education for sure. You respect all creatures, trees, plants, water and earth and air, in addition to the beating of your own heart. You look at yourself with interest as a human being at this timing and see a different identity to what was present previously. You are reaching out to be a person like a monarchy because they are on earth to share with forms of equality to all in their region. You are the same. Acceptance of every level of economic status, colour, creed and religion, if you must call it that. You are able to label everything on earth, but acceptance of everything as it is right now, is important. That is because change is only able to be noted by people who are recognize their place in the world and how they affect it on a moment-to-moment basis. Thank you indeed.

So, a monarchy you are and that is great that you understand yourself just a little better. Understanding yourself is very important right now. You must understand that you are a temporary person on earth and a long-lived energy formation at the same timing. You cannot have one without the other. That is a fact. You are you. Be understanding of yourself – the first step to recognizing your importance. You breathe, the trees and creatures breathe, the water and the earth and the air, all breathe just like you. That is a fact. Having a breath when on earth means life. With a physical body on earth, you are assisting all on earth to continue living and learning. With acceptance, it is best for you to breathe easily and efficiently. That is a fact.

Monarchy for you personally means acceptance of yourself and all else in the world as being equal value to the earth experience. It has nothing to do with monetary value, if that is what you are thinking. The monarchy you think about has money provided to them to keep all in that country feeling equal in the status of a good human being. However, if you are able to understand that equality aspect, then all humans on earth may live in the aspects of equality, just as the monarchy does and on display. Yours may be on display for your immediate family, friends and co-workers. Nothing about the word Monarchy has to do with a specific number of those being accepted. Thank you indeed.

So, in answer to your intimate question of ‘Why am I a Monarchy’, the answer is very simple. It is you, in this world, at this timing, that require acceptance and appreciation for yourself, your physical body, your mental body, your emotional body and the other bodies as well, in order to recognize the monarchy within you. Acceptance is the key word for you at this timing.

Thank you indeed and good day.
