

I, Mother Nature, am with you on this day and in this way, to bring information to you about yourself and how you are connected to forms of nature as you know it but also forms of nature that you might not have connected to you in any formation. I, Mother Nature, am bringing you information at this timing to include you in the realms of nature itself. At this point, most of you think of yourself as separate from nature. As I am the mother of all that is on earth, this information could provide you with a variant attitude or cognitive interpretation of the word nature itself.

So, when the earth was created some millions of years ago, it was first populated with creatures so they could assist in the formulating of the earth surface, the water ways, the land itself and the concepts of air and how it would assist all to live. There were souls who were willing to be those creatures who wanted to advance their learnings about energy flow itself and how it applied to them specifically. You are aware through history books and drawings that there were creatures that were quite huge and managed to assist the earth's beginnings. It took quite a time to create the earth as you know it today. Of course it was always round, and that is because the energies of the earth were travelling in circles and that is a fact. The earth was travelling in a clockwise manner in the energy fields.

So, why was the earth created as an education facility? Well, it was simple. All of the energy souls in the Universal All That Is, wanted to try living somewhere that needed the energy level to be quite dense where they could learn about feelings, which was never integrated in the universal aspects. It was an education for all really, but definitely for the participants in this arrangement. So when you are thinking of this earth, I would like you now to think of it as the first place for souls to come to experience feelings along with the energy flow. That is a great start.

Next came the elimination of the huge creatures, wherein you are still finding bones etc., if you are so inclined in that way of exploring the history of the earth. That meant that the opportunity had arisen for souls to choose to come to earth as human beings. Prior to arriving on earth, they were provided with a choice of either male or female gender. You are probably wondering why there are both genders on earth, but not in the Universal All That Is originally. Well, that is because the earth was formulated as a duality of energy. That means that everything had an opposite. There would be two genders, two of anything that walked and were produced on earth and of course, the key here is that you had two emotions you could choose from. Did you want to live a life in the positive realm or the negative realm? Both were acceptable and it was for the education of energy flow itself.

So you know you have light and dark and they are produced by the sun , but the dark has the blessing of the moon and its changes as well as the stars and their brightness, so it very seldom will seem completely dark. However, that is one of the aspects of duality.

Next came the concept of who was going to start the world and how and that is when the magic of energy is able to take place with humans as well as the creatures, trees and plants. Who began and how did that work? It is magic actually. That is a fact. Energy itself is magic, and you are the product of that magic. You have the connections of the universal energy within your anatomy, your actual physical body is the product of the earthly energy and then you have your 'thoughts', which create your personal energy. So, in your lifetime, you have accumulated a lot of experience, education and knowingness from being on earth. That is a fact. You have arrived on earth and started learning about your feelings and in the meantime, you kept coming back for more and let those feelings fester inside of you and now they are entitled emotions. So, you have them and unfortunately that has meant that most individuals want to try out the negative side of the duality and stay there, because they feel they want to control something in their life, whether it is financial or not. Just control over themselves and others. But the key here, is that it does not work really well for them because the negativity takes over for themselves as well. That is a case wherein several human beings are doing their best to control others but are finding they are not able to control themselves.

So, here we are in 2025 in the fall time and it is the timing for a decision once again, but this timing it is a conscious decision and not an energy one only. Prior to this timing, all decisions were made by you when you wrote the script of your life on earth, which was an energy decision only and you are putting your life on the line of that script. A lot happens to you in your life that you have not planned, whether it be for the good or the bad, according to your interpretation. Each happening allowed you to change your thoughts, which of course is your personal energy.

Decision time! You chose to come to the earth to be educated about yourself and your energy level, counting on you to be part of nature as it is termed while on earth. The earth itself is called Mother Earth, and it is the job of the earth to circulate each day and allow the educational facility to maintain many people, creatures, trees and plants so the education of energy flow is possible.

Now, the earth is improving its energy level because the duality was too lopsided to maintain the balance of the earth itself. That means the negative took advantage and has destroyed a lot of what was land, water and air, which affects the humans, the creatures and the trees and plants. In addition are the items you take for granted that have been damaged as well, such as the sun, the moon and stars above.

You are part of the whole on earth, and you are part of nature. Do not kid yourself that you are better than other forms of nature. You are all souls learning about energy in different physical form. That is all.

We will continue with this line of information flow next week. However, I would like you to know that you are an energy being, on earth, to learn about yourself. Read my words more than once or twice and recognize yourself in my words. It is decision time – are you wanting to be on one side of the duality or the other? It makes a huge difference to your education as of now. Thank you indeed and good day.
