

LUSCIOUS

I, Thor, the Ultra Energy of the Universal All That Is, am with you at this timing and in this mode of communication, in order to assure you that life is continuing in a form of interesting aspects of communication. You are now just as confused as you were previously about energy flow, but you are learning to live in luscious surroundings and definitely feel life is good in many ways. You have ceased evaluating life according to the concept of money, because that is all changing now. So, instead of money, what are you basing your living on? Is it the concept of love of yourself? Is it the idea of locating something that is relevant to you to dwell on? It is perhaps that longing for the old is preferable? It is maybe, that you are lucky and recognize that you are on earth to use your ability? Or maybe you do not know what the ability is that you need to be exploring? Thank you indeed.

So, the time of energy changes in the earth itself has risen more than you realize or recognized. Each increase in the rate of vibration is affecting you as well and you probably feel like you are rushing through life. Yes, time is going faster, because the rotations of the earth itself are going faster. What does that mean to you really? It means you are to slow down. Why? Because if you keep going faster, you will burn yourself out. If you slow down your thoughts and really listen to them, your life will be lovely.

Thoughts from yourself will simplify your life more than you are able to do most days. Your thoughts will honour your desire to be more of you and allows recognition of what needs to be done and in what timing. And of course, it honours more of who you are to yourself, not to other people, but to yourself.

You are a person that is on earth to learn about yourself and your abilities and connect them with all of your energies possible. So, money is leaving the earth and you are standing alone in some forms because it is the timing to find out more about you. You, yourself and you. Nothing is better than that. It is a luscious feeling to love yourself sufficiently to want to know more about yourself. It is a luscious step to take, to allow yourself to let go of the old so you are able to look in the mirror and honour all of you at this timing. It does not matter what your physical body looks like in the mirror, but what you are able to see about yourself that is unique and valued and therefore wonderful and loving. Love of yourself comes first. Love of your family comes second, but love of all your physical possessions does not require love, just respect. Love to you means that you feel a real connection with someone. Love does not come automatically just because you are related or have known each other a long time. Love that is not based on feelings from inside, is not considered love at all. It is just a word that is used but not valued. Thank you indeed.

Luscious means that you are filled with excitement at the thought of any situation. It means that you are the one who feels it deep inside. You are not only comfortable, but itching to do what is necessary to make yourself better each day, as the energies change within you. Luscious allows you to honour the earth, honour your part of being on earth, and honour of all that resides on earth, nature-wise, and honours the energy that you partake in, being the earth's companion at this timing. Luscious is when you are thinking of yourself and progressing because of how you are feeling about life.

There are no luscious aspects about money – that is only a fever that encourages emotions. Luscious is not emotional nor does it have the qualities of emotional beings. Luscious is the concept of how life can be on earth when you are using and honouring your abilities and feeling the communication via thoughts from yourself. That is the correct interpretation. Thank you indeed.

On this day, it is the birthday of the new you. Honour that please, because it means you will be living at the same concept as the earth and that is what is required. Say these words – “I, ‘your name’, am with the earth on this day in order to understand my connection with the earth as it rotates and changes all that is within me. Thank you indeed”.

In that fashion, you will be born with the changes already within you. A gift to yourself you could say. Today, when you are reading this message of Who, you will understand more of Who you are.

Thank you indeed and good day.
