POLITE

I, Thor, the Ultra Energy of the Universal All That is, welcome you to feeling more suitable to the climate, affordable to the atmosphere and encouraging you to be the best you can be at the timing that you are doing something special for yourself. Interesting wording of course. What does that mean? Well, today it means that you are looking at yourself with a different 'eye'. It is time to see yourself as energy as well as physical. Yes, you have a physical body that is the shape it is in, to convey the story that you are living and it was written by yourself prior to coming to earth. That is a fact. So, it is best to say 'thank you' to yourself for learning the lessons along the way. Thank you indeed.

Privacy is important to you, as far as your inner thoughts are concerned. However, it is also important to understand what privacy means. It is meant for you to recognize that your energy is yours and if you do not want to share it, you do not need to do so. Have you ever met a person that you do not want to stand close to? Or not share in a hug. Or perhaps you do not even want to hear the tone of their voice. Well, that happens in order for you to recognize that your body is letting you know that your energy is not connecting to their energy. If that happens, with anyone, honour it by making certain that the connection does not happen and will not happen again. When you meet a person that you want to be close to, speak with or hug make certain that you do so. It means that you have something that requires sharing and it will assist you greatly at this timing. It means that their information will assist you to understand your information flow itself. So, no power over or under, simply information flow taking place when it is required by you both at the same timing. It does not matter if you really know the person or not, by the way, so that is interesting as well. Thank you indeed.

The energies are altering, changing, and providing varying degrees of understanding, so you are more open to learning about yourself. Your world seems like it is closing down in some ways of all that was negative and opening up to the possibilities of positive at this timing. Let it happen. Now it is best for you to realize that you are the person that is the priority in your life. That is a fact. Do you want to understand yourself better? Yes, I believe you do. So I will ask you what it means to you to be 'polite'? Does it mean that you need to maintain politeness to those you no longer are wanting to be near? No, it does not. Does it mean that you want to spread your politeness to others that you do want to be connected to even in some ways? Yes, it does. Polite means that you are speaking in a comfortable fashion and that you are providing information that is relevant to the person receiving it and it also means it is spoken without undo emotion attached to it. Polite is the word for this format and it is the word for you to emphasize in your life as of this day forward. Feel the energy connections or disconnections, learn to speak without emotion and only the necessities in each instance. Thank you indeed and good day.
